

G5 releases new game The Hidden Treasures

G5 Entertainment announces the availability of the pre-order for its new free-to-play game The Hidden Treasures, in the Apple App Store. The game is a deep re-make of an earlier game in the company's portfolio.

The Hidden Treasures is a mystery adventure game with a storyline full of twists and turns. Set in the atmospheric setting of the Caribbean, players can freely choose game mode: a hidden object or match-3 gameplay, which makes the game unique in giving the player a choice of finding objects or matching gems in a row to advance in the storyline.

As with all newly developed G5 games The Hidden Treasures has the G5 Friends network built in, making it possible to play with your friends.
